Features

- automatic camera detection of different foods — Cayden
- export to a shopping list for new ingredients — Cayden
- learning from a users selected meals in the past to more accurately make suggestions in the future — Cayden
- option to auto order grocery delivery for a set of meals planned throughout the week — Cayden
- meal planning option to have set meals for each day — Cayden
- 'social media' feed for users to connect about recipes and communities — Cayden audience

- people who want to simplify their home life — Cayden
- parents who dont have time to brainstorm recipes — Cayden
- people who are struggling to quit going out every night — Cayden
- people with strict dietary restrictions — Cayden
- people who enjoy cooking — Cayden
- people who want to learn how to cook well — Cayden

design

- infinite scrolling for recipe selection — Cayden
- featured recipes of the week — Cayden
- smooth UI elements — Cayden
- not too complex — Cayden
- powerful mobile AND desktop apps — Cayden
- saving recipes, 'blocking' recipes, engaging with recipes, reviews of recipes — Cayden

Methods of Sharing

- From user created recipes within the app itself — Gaozheng Wu
- Recipes shared throughout the internet (Google, YouTube, Instagram, etc) — Gaozheng Wu
- A daily special created by well received creators or influencers — Gaozheng Wu
- Direct user to user recipe sharing — Gaozheng Wu
- Partnering with grocery stores or farmers market that sell a package of ingredients — Gaozheng Wu

Hurdles

- Getting a large enough user base to share recipes — Gaozheng Wu
- Securing funding — Gaozheng Wu
- Training AI capable of making suggestions — Gaozheng Wu
- Getting users to trust the app enough to input what they have in their homes — Gaozheng Wu
- Monetization — Gaozheng Wu